Protection & Control

With helpful professionals and dedicated brokers, we make sure you always remain in control. Our lengthy due diligence and research will align you with tangible holdings that are relatively low in risk. This is extremely important to balance out against a portfolio consisting of high risk investments. This can help protect your overall portfolio and in some cases work as a hedge against inflation. With regular market updates and contact, you will be kept aware of the performance and current prices.

Value

In today's economic climate it is important that investors get great value for money. We "cut out the middle man" by sourcing our diamonds directly through our suppliers, "Bodra Gems." This means that the buyer will gain significant value by avoiding heavily inflated rates a retailer would normally charge and add to the overall cost of the diamonds. We believe it becomes attractive purchasing through Anderson Capital Management as it contributes towards maximising your benefits.

Quality

We ensure that all purchases made through Anderson Capital Management are of the highest standard. This assures that all diamonds and jewellery bought are certified through benchmarks that are recognised globally. There are two main bodies that guarantee authenticity and quality of diamonds and gemstones. They are known worldwide as the IGI & GIA. Certification will act as a form of protection to safeguard your capital and to make it a hassle free process for both the “buyer and seller”.

Rewards & Incentives

With our flexible terms we offer client incentives, benefits and rewards. We offer reward points on all purchases. These points will accrue over time and give the buyer further advantages as a reflection of client loyalty. The more frequently an investor makes trades, the more frequently they are rewarded through our scheme. We believe it is essential to give something back and make our clients the number one priority.
